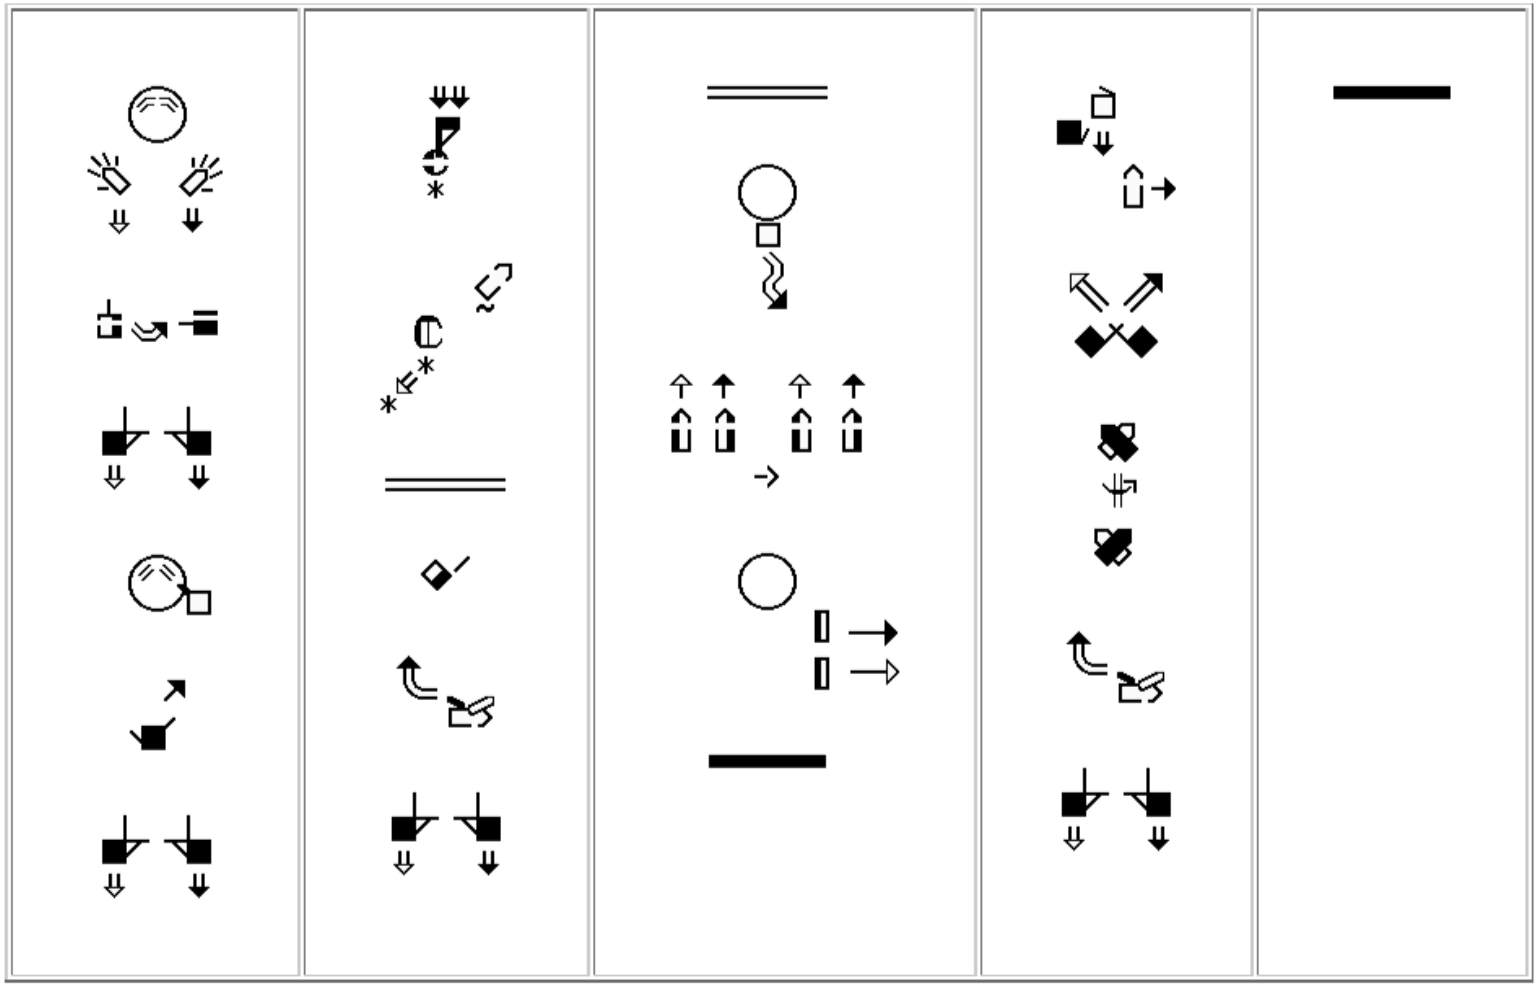
2Co 5:17 Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new.


So any person if that person in Christ, he new person, old ways finished. Everything different become new person.