

Pr 13:21 ¶ Evil
pursueth sinners:
but to the
righteous good
shall be repayed.

If people sin continue then problems follow, but if people right action continue, then good things come.

Pr 13:22 ¶ A good [man] leaveth an inheritance to his children's children: and the wealth of the
sinner [is] laid up
for the just.

If person good, then will leave inheritance for his grandchildren and treasure of sinner will give to right people.

Pr 13:23 ¶ Much food [is in] the
tillage of the poor:
but there is [that

is] destroyed for want of judgment.

When poor people work, that farm food grow much, but money disappear, why? Other people take-advantage.

Pr 13:24 ¶ He that spareth his rod hateth his son: but he that loveth him chasteneth him betimes.

If a man his son not punish that means hate son, but if man love son will punish.

Pr 13:25 ¶ The righteous eateth to the satisfying of his soul: but the belly of the wicked shall want.

Group righteous people eat until satisfied, but belly of group sinners will be hungry.
