

JUDGE DOCTRINE, NOT PEOPLE.

Romans 14:5 One man esteemeth one day above another: another esteemeth every day alike. Let every man be fully persuaded in his own mind.

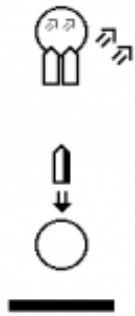

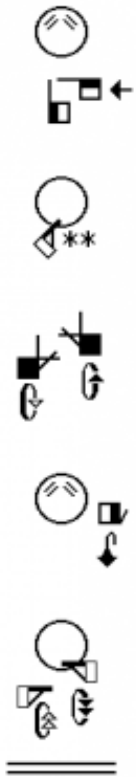

Have Individually undoubtably sure consciences while unquestionably believing the sincerity of others.

6 He that regardeth the day, regardeth it unto the Lord; and he that regardeth not the day, to the Lord he doth not regard it. He that eateth, eateth to the Lord, for he giveth God thanks; and he that eateth not, to the Lord he eateth not, and giveth God thanks.

					Paul took the time to truly understand the perspective of others. A mature believer realizes that good people disagree about some things. Some people love special days; some people love special diets. Other people love having the freedom to choose. (III.) When one group of people think they have the right to define deafness, do they have that right?

can help people that disagree, agree to be together.

7 For none of us liveth to himself, and no man dieth to himself.

Relationship religion must diligently guard relationships from legalism.

Only in Christianity can we be our true selves with the condition that we let others be themselves. Our purpose is to please God and love others, and especially love their uniqueness.

8 For whether we live, we live unto the Lord; and whether we die, we die unto the Lord: whether we live therefore, or die, we are the Lord's.

We zealously resist idolatry; we boast of our diversity; and treasure our identity.

Cherish your freedom and respect the freedom of others.
