

NO LAW OR WITHOUT THE LAW?

13 For the promise, that he should be the heir of the world, was not to Abraham, or to his seed, through the law, but through the righteousness of faith.

13 Clearly, (to) Abraham, descendants, all (the) earth (God) had promised (to) give. Based not (on) Abraham's obedience (to) God's law. Truly (the) promise (was) based (on a) right relationship with God through faith.

(III.) When did you start wearing seat belts?
(Did the law make you safe?)

Abraham was made right with God before circumcision and before the law.

14 For if they which are of the law be heirs, faith is made void, and the promise made of none effect:

14 (The) law, people they obey, if God's promise (is) only for them people, then faith (is) not needed. So, (the) promise means nothing.

(III.) The law only shows you that you are not safe, but it cannot make anyone become safe. It is faith in the seat-belt that saves a passenger. You see that the law is not needed, only faith is needed.

God promised Abraham he would be an heir. The law which came 400+ years later cannot change what God promised. The law cannot nullify the promise.

15 Because the law worketh wrath: for where no law is, there is no transgression.

15 People try (to) obey (the) law, (but the) law only causes punishment. (To) avoid breaking (the) law, how? (The) only way (is to) have no law, then breaking (the) law (is) not possible.

(III.) speeding on German autobahns

When Abraham lived there was sin, but there was no law. Just like in Germany there is speeding, but no law against it. You can get killed, but you won't go to jail.

16 Therefore it is of faith, that it might be by grace; to the end the promise might be sure to all the seed; not to that only which is of the law, but to that also which is of the faith of Abraham; who is the father of us all,

16 So (the) promise (is) received how? Faith. (The) gift (is) freely (by) God given. Truly we all (can) receive (it), if Abraham's faith (and) our faith (is) the same. Mose's Law we live follow, (or) not follow, no-matter. Abraham (is the) father (of) all people who believe.

The gift (the promise of eternal life) is received the same way Abraham received his gift of righteousness, by faith. What is eternal life? It is like getting married except it is coming into a relationship with the Eternal God through faith in His Son, Jesus Christ. (You marry the family.)
